

"High Art" Clothing.

There may be other concerns that make clothing to fit our Southern people as well as Strouse Bros. celebrated "High Art" Brand, but we have never been able to locate them as yet, nor do we believe any one else has. "High Art" clothing is made in five separate and distinct shapes—the short and stout—young men's—regulars—long and slims and extra large and we can fit any shaped man or boy, but it is especially adopted to our tall, slim, long legged, long armed, long bodied, small waisted Southern folks. "High Art" patterns are the result of 35 years of experimenting, study and experience, and they are well nigh perfect. There is a set of shapeliness about a "High Art" suit of clothes that very few of the high price tailors can approach.

A tobacco barn, well filled with the weed, belonging to Emily Fox, a colored woman living near Howell, was consumed by fire last Wednesday night. The tobacco caught in some way during the process of "firing." Her loss amounts to several hundred dollars.

Dwelling House Destroyed By Fire.

Mr. Thos. W. Young, a tenant on Mr. Geo. Boddie's farm near Lafayette, had the misfortune to lose everything he had by fire a few nights ago. The fire originated from a defective flue and when it was discovered about 2 o'clock in the morning, the roof was falling in and Mr. Young and his wife and five children barely escaped with their lives. There was no insurance, either on building or contents.

Tried the Laudanum Route.

George Mills, a well known young business man of this city, took an overdose of laudanum Saturday night and came near dying before the drug could be pumped from his stomach. Physicians worked with him for several hours before he was considered out of danger. The supposition is that he swallowed the drug with suicidal intent, but no cause has been assigned for the rash act.

Cook and Breathitt.

Judges Cook and Breathitt opened their canvass in this county in a joint discussion at the court house yesterday afternoon. Judge Breathitt opened the discussion, Judge Cook followed with a speech of an hour and a half and Breathitt closed with a ten minutes rejoinder. The discussion was not concluded in time to be reported in this issue. The judicial candidates have a number of appointments in the county, beginning with one at Gracey to-morrow.

Perhaps Fatally Shot.

Rush McReynolds and another negro, laborers employed on Mr. E. J. Faulkner's farm, near Church Hill, engaged in a friendly scuffle over the possession of a pistol. The weapon was discharged and the ball entered McReynolds' side, just below the heart, producing what is believed to be a fatal wound. The negro was alive late yesterday afternoon, but chances for his recovery are slim. The wounded man says the shooting was purely accidental, hence no warrant has been sworn out for the man who did the shooting.

A Sensation Without Foundation.

Mr. Henry Clardy, of Mobile, Ala., arrived at his father's near Bell's, in this county, about two weeks ago, and a few days later had a slight attack of bilious fever. Dr. Jno. P. Bell was his physician and the young man soon recovered from the attack. The report that he had yellow fever was entirely unfounded and calculated to cause needless alarm among those who are easily frightened over reports they see in the newspapers. There has been no yellow fever in Kentucky, except one case at Louisville and two at East Cairo, opposite Cairo, Ill.

CONFERENCE CLOSED.

Delegates Elected to the General Conference—The Campbell Case.

Henderson, Ky., Sept. 25.—The great interest of the Conference was this morning centered in the election of delegates to the General Conference which meets at Baltimore next May. Conference opened with prayer by W. K. Piner.

The case of J. J. Roddel was referred to the committee on superannuation. The Rev. F. M. Thomas was elected supernumerary, having served a two years' course.

An exhaustive report from Mrs. Truehart as secretary of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions, was read. J. S. Crandall, who had been suspended from the university a year ago on account of alleged improper conduct, was reinstated to the active ministry.

The election of delegates to the General Conference resulted as follows: Clerical delegates, Dr. David Morton, Dr. Jno. W. Lewis, of Louisville, Dr. H. C. Morrison and Dr. Gross Alexander, of Nashville. Lay delegates, John L. Wheat, of Louisville; R. E. Crockett, of Elkton; W. S. Johnson, of Henderson; and B. F. Bowman.

W. K. Piner, of Bowling Green, and D. S. Campbell were elected as alternate clerical delegates.

The report in the investigation of Rev. Geo. F. Campbell's case is expected Monday. An acquittal is confidently expected.

The Henderson Gleaner of Sunday gave this report of the Campbell case:

"The testimony before the committee in Rev. Geo. F. Campbell's case was concluded late yesterday afternoon. The meetings of the committee were held in the basement of the Church. At 7:30 last night the committee reconvened and first heard the argument of Dr. J. B. McFarrie, the counsel for the prosecution and then the argument for the defence by Dr. David Morton. The argument was concluded last night about 10 o'clock when the case was given to the committee who deliberated on the matter until nearly 12 o'clock. In the evidence was a sensation. A letter from Samuel Folwell, father of Mrs. Campbell, was read which stated that she was of a violent temper, self-willed and at times uncontrollable. Rev. E. W. Bottomly, Dr. H. D. Moore, Rev. G. E. Foskett and W. C. Brandon testified that they believe Mrs. Campbell to be sane and that she had told the truth to the investigating committee. Dr. Jno. W. Lewis and Rev. J. S. Scobee were called in rebuttal. They stated that they believed her to be mentally unbalanced. Rev. Frank M. Thomas also gave important testimony in Campbell's behalf. The general opinion is that he will be acquitted with a recommendation that the bishop administer a slight reproof. After the argument in the case had closed, Rev. Geo. F. Campbell was seen coming from the committee room and when asked about the case he said: 'The case is in the hands of my brethren and they will do what they conceive to be just and right in the matter and that is all that I could ask.' On the adjournment of the committee Dr. H. C. Morrison, the chairman, was seen concerning the matter and stated the committee had not completed its work, but would not say whether or not a final decision was reached, but that it would be Monday.

The Gleaner is prepared to definitely state that no final decision was reached last night by the committee, but that a decision will be arrived at to-morrow, when a report will be made to the Conference of the finding."

COLORED GIRL ASSAULTED.

A Negro's Horrible Crime at Owensboro.

Owensboro, Ky., Sept. 26.—Henry Richardson, a negro of about thirty years, with a wife and three children, was arrested this afternoon upon information volunteered by Mr. J. D. Long, a sign painter, of Owensboro, charging him with a criminal assault upon the person of Julia Smith, a ten-year-old colored girl.

Mr. Long testified that he witnessed Richardson drag the child down into a ravine near the county jail, in this city, and accomplish his purpose. Richardson was immediately taken before Judge Pendleton, who remanded him to jail until to-morrow for his examining trial.

Feeling ran high for some time after the negro had been placed in jail among the colored people of the city, but no fear of a mob is expected.

Three of a Kind.

Anderson, Ind., September 22.—That free silver is not a dead issue in this county was amply illustrated this morning when the task of naming triplet boys, born to Mrs. Richard Weaver, at Oaklandon, fell to the father. The boys all showed a great deal of activity, and Weaver decided that they could be called William Jennings and Bryan.

Will Cato, in jail at Princeton, has confessed the killing of Dave Askew.

RAPE AND ROPE.

QUICK WORK MADE WITH A FIEND AT HAWESVILLE.

Struck His Victim With a Coupling Pin—She May Yet Die.

Hawesville, Ky., Sept. 26.—The first daylight lynching to occur in Kentucky since the murderer Barker was hanged from the church window in Lexington fifty years ago, occurred here at 5 o'clock this afternoon, when Raymond Bushrod, a 20-year-old negro, was hanged by a mob for assaulting Miss Maggie Roberts.

The crime occurred near Petrie Station, three miles from here yesterday afternoon.

Miss Maggie, who is only 16 years of age, had been sent to the station to buy some groceries. Half a mile from home she was assaulted by the negro. He had a large coupling pin in his hand and when she resisted he struck her on the head, rendering her unconscious. She came to about an hour afterward and managed to get home.

Her father quickly gathered a crowd of neighbors and they chased the negro into a thicket. There Roberts left his friends on guard and came to Hawesville for Sheriff Fuqua. The latter gathered a posse and went to the scene, but the negro was so carefully hidden that he was not captured until nearly midnight. The Sheriff found him secreted in some underbrush. He got him out of the thicket without attracting the attention of Roberts and his friends and placed him in jail.

The news of the capture did not spread until this morning, when men from the Petrie neighborhood began coming into town in squads. They continued to come all day and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon fully 300 strangers were here.

At 4:30 o'clock Judge Adair told Jailor Brown to give it out that Bushrod had escaped. This caused the mob to scatter and begin a search for the negro. Some of the mob remained behind and they soon learned that the reported escape was but a ruse of the officers to spirit the negro away and prevent his being lynched. They sent runners to overtake the members of the mob who had left town and at 5 o'clock they were back at the jail demanding admittance.

A report had spread that Gov. Bradley ordered the State troops to come here and this spurred the mob on to action. They procured hammers and axes, broke down the jail door and soon had the negro.

They led Bushrod into the courthouse yard, where he confessed that he had assaulted Miss Roberts and asked the leaders of the mob to let him pray. They granted him the privilege and he prayed for nearly five minutes.

When he had finished a noose was placed around his neck and he was quickly jerked up. After waiting until life was extinct, the mob departed without firing a single shot. The execution was witnessed by fully 600 people. Bushrod came from Rockport, Ind. There he was charged with assaulting his aunt, aged 60, and also with assaulting a white girl.

Miss Roberts is badly injured and may die.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Docket For the Fall Term a Very Heavy One.

Circuit Court convened in this city yesterday for a six weeks' term. The docket is the largest for years. There are about 150 appearances and between four and five hundred continued cases. The most important case to come up is that of the Commonwealth against T. W. Wootton, charged with murder. This case is set for the 7th day of the term—Oct. 4. The grand jury was drawn, and after lengthy instructions were delivered by Judge Breathitt, court adjourned until this morning, when the petit juries will be selected and the mills of justice will be put in motion.

Tried to Whip a Man.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 25.—Editor Pat McDonald, of the Western Argus, was cowed at the door of his residence opposite the Court-House at 8:15 o'clock this morning by Mrs. Sarah Brady, a grass widow.

The Brady woman went to his residence and rang the bell. McDonald was summoned to the door. As the door was being opened she struck McDonald in the face with a heavy cowhide, and began to lash him.

The affair caused a big sensation. McDonald said he never knew the woman and the item in his paper induced the assault had no reference to her.

The 49ers are going to have another annual reunion at Providence Oct. 7.
